BRIEF HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

THE FEDERAL STREET CHURCH.

ABOUT the year 1820, the subject of establishing a NEW BAPTIST CHURCH in Boston, more central than either of the others, began to engage the attention of a few earnest brethren. Partly with this view, and partly to provide gospel instruction in a destitute vicinity, meetings for prayer and public worship were instituted in the then south-eastern part of the City, and continued for several years, with various degrees of encouragement. In August, 1821, was formed "The Baptist Society for promoting Morality and Piety in Boston," which, in October, 1828, assumed the name of the "Boston Baptist Evangelical Society." By this Society, meetings were maintained in a convenient Hall over the "Ship Market," in Purchase Street, supplied by MR. E. LINCOLN and others, till the REV. R. W. CUSHMAN was engaged, who for a number of months regularly occupied the station. In April, 1826, the spacious "JULIEN HALL," in Milk Street, was procured, where the meetings were continued till they were removed into the Meeting House then in course of erection.

Early in 1825, active measures, in which a cordial interest was manifested by the pastors and members of the three existing Churches, began to be taken with reference to erecting a Central Baptist Meeting House. On the 23d of February, 1825, a number of brethren, impressed with the importance of the object, met at the house of Dr. Baldwin, for consultation and prayer; and so great was the interest felt by those present that the sum of eight thousand dollars was voluntarily pledged toward the accomplishment of the object.

On the 28th of the same month a general meeting was held at the vestry of the "Second Baptist Church," at which the Pastors of the three then existing Churches and a large number of friends were present. Dr. Baldwin presided. Having sought divine direction and maturely considered the subject, "it was Voted unanimously, that, in the opinion of this meeting, it is expedient to attempt the erection of a New Baptist Meeting House in this City."

Committees were appointed to receive subscriptions, and report a location; and it was "voted that when a Church should be formed to worship in the proposed house, having the fellowship of the other Baptist Churches in Boston, the Deed of the house should be given to the Church, as a Calvinistic Baptist Church, to be held by them while three male members remain adhering to these sentiments."

A site for the building was purchased on Federal Street, near Milk Street, at two dollars per foot, amounting in all to 15,348 dollars.

On the 25th of September, 1826, the CORNER-STONE of the building was laid, with appropriate religious services. The hymn, "Jesus shall reign," etc., was sung, an address by Rev. Daniel Sharp, Pastor of the "Third Church," delivered, and prayer offered by Rev. James D. Knowles, Pastor of the "Second Church."

THE FIRST MEETING HOUSE, 1827.

In the early part of May, 1827, the Building Committee informed the existing Churches of the forward state of the house, and requested a meeting of those interested, to consult as to what course should be pursued with reference to the formation of a Church. Immediate steps were taken with this object in view, and on the 17th of May, 1827, the first preliminary meeting was held. At this meeting the Pastors and one Deacon from each of the Churches met with the brethren. After several subsequent meetings for consultation and prayer, sixty-five brethren and sisters harmoniously associated, and were cordially dismissed to compose the New Church.

On Monday, July 16, 1827, a Council was convened with reference to the Recognition of the Church, consisting of the Pastors and Delegates of the three Baptist Churches of Boston, and the Charlestown, Cambridge, Roxbury, and Newton Churches.

"THE MEETING HOUSE," says the record in the Baptist Missionary Magazine, "is a neat and spacious edifice, built of brick, 74 feet wide and 86 feet long, including the porch. It has a basement story, containing a large and convenient vestry, two rooms for candidates to prepare for baptism, and three large rooms for other purposes. In front of the pulpit is a Baptistry. There are 117 pews on the lower floor, and 34 in the gallery. A cupola is erected, and accommodates a bell weighing 1,635 pounds."

THE DEDICATION OF THE HOUSE took place on Wednesday, the 18th. The exercises were as follows: Invocation, by Rev. Joseph Grafton, of Newton; the hymn, from "Winchell's Watts," "Great King of glory, come," was sung; reading of Scriptures, by Rev. Bela Jacobs, of Cambridge; Dedicatory Prayer, by Rev. C. P. Grosvenor, of the First Baptist Church; Sermon, by Rev. Daniel Sharp, from Eccl. v. 1: "Keep thy foot when thou goest to the."

house of God;" Prayer, by Rev. Dr. Lueius Bolles; the Hand of Fellowship was extended to E. Lincoln, representing the newly formed Church; with an Address by Rev. J. D. Knowles, of the Second Baptist Church. In the course of his Address, he says: "Although, from the relation in which a greater portion of your members have stood to your sister Churches in this city, it is natural and right that we should feel some emotions of regret at sundering the tie which has bound us together as members of the same body; yet this sorrow is soothed and overcome, nay, is heightened into gratitude and joy; when we think that our brethren and sisters have left us in kindness and peace, to form a new family; to take possession of a new portion of the inheritance of God's children; to set up their banners at a new post of opposition to Satan's kingdom; and to labor with us, with kindred hearts and common aims, in extending the glorious kingdom of our Lord. We feel stronger by the accession of this newly organized band to the host of God's elect. The golden chain of our Churches has acquired a new link, and is strengthened by its extension. In the name of our Redeemer, then, we cheer you onward. And now, my dear brother, let us exchange the mutual pledge, that we still be one in heart; that as brethren, having one Lord, one Faith, and one Baptism, we will live and toil together in love; and that our prayer for each other, and for the whole Zion of God, shall be, 'Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.'" He continued, by remarks addressed particularly to the Members of the Church:—

"Brethren, this is a day of solemn joy! To God the blessed and only Potentate, let us ascribe the praise, that this Church is formed at a time so peaceful, and in circumstances so ominous of prosperity. How different your situation from that of the little band who, one hundred and sixty-two years ago, united together to form the "First Baptist Church" in this City. They were eight only in number, and instead of being welcomed and encouraged by the cheering voices of brethren and friends, they were assailed by persecution, arrested as criminals, imprisoned, fined; and by a public act of the Legislature, a portion of them were at length ordered, though without effect, to leave the State. Instead of finding a spacious and elegant house ready for their reception, they, like the primitive saints, of whom the world was not worthy, were forced to assemble privately, for fourteen years, in any place where they could find safety from their persecutors; and when at length, by great toils and sacrifices, they succeeded in erecting a House for public worship, the doors of this Sanctuary of God were nailed up by order of the General Court of Massachusetts.

The establishment of a new Church of Christ is, at all times, an interesting event. It is a new fort erected in an enemy's land; it is another light-house in this dark world. A Church composed of humble, praying Christians, united heart and hand in supporting and advancing the religion of Christ, is a powerful body. It possesses an irrepressible moral energy; it shines with an inextinguishable light; error and sin cannot stand before it. It is an army with banners, fighting the battles of the Lord, and sure of victory, because the Lord of hosts is with it, the God of Jacob is its refuge.

Brethren, we congratulate you on the bright prospects before you; we rejoice at the harmony which has marked all your proceedings; we praise God that he has enabled His servants to erect for you this commodious and costly edifice. It is our prayer that His blessing may ever dwell with you; may He give you the spirit of grace and supplication, and increasing union of hearts in the love and practice of the truth."

The services closed with singing "I love thy kingdom, Lord."

It is interesting here to record, as evidence of God's faithfulness, and of his ever watchful care over his Church, that during a special religious interest that prevailed immediately following the dismissal of the brethren and sisters to constitute this new organization, there were added, by baptism, to these Churches, more than twice the number dismissed; thus fulfilling the language of Scripture, "There is that scattereth and yet increaseth."

THE SABBATH SCHOOL was regularly organized, after leaving "Julien Hall," at a meeting called for the purpose, in the lecture-room, at which Ensign Lincoln presided, on October the 21st, 1827. A Constitution was adopted, and the following officers and teachers were elected, namely, John Putnam, Superintendent; Charles A. Macomber, Secretary; and Joseph Converse, Treasurer. Teachers: John Hunt, James W. Converse, Ebenezer Seecomb, Ephraim Wood, I. Macomber, Jr., Mary L. O'Brien, Luey A. H. Peterson, Ann Dillaway, Naney Forbes, Luey F. McIntosh, Mary A. W. Quiney, Jane F. Nichols, and Sarah G. Stevens.

The School regularly held two sessions on the Sabbath, commencing at the "ringing of the first bell," one hour previous to the church service, morning and afternoon.

Until about this time the brethren had not been able to fix their minds on any Minister as their spiritual guide; and this fact had added much to the sacrifice made by such as had given themselves to this cause. The REV. HOWARD MALCOM, at that time general agent of the "American Sunday School Union," having visited this City on the business of that Society a few weeks before the Constitution of the Church, became known to the brethren, and he was invited, August 29, 1827, by a unanimous "CALL," to the care of the Church and Society. After returning to the City to learn the path of duty by a few weeks' residence among the people, the invitation was accepted, October 16, and he entered upon his labors November 13, 1827.

A Council with reference to his INSTALLATION was convened at the Lecture Room of the Church on the 9th of January, 1828. The Pastors and Delegates of the following sister Churches were present by invitation of the Church, namely, the First, Second, and Third Baptist Churches of Boston, and the Newton, First Cambridge, Second Cambridge, Roxbury, First Salem, and Charlestown Churches. The following clergymen, being present, were invited to take seats and act with the Council, namely, Rev. Elisha Williams; Professors Irah Chase and H. J. Ripley; Rev. Thomas Paul and Rev. John Newton Brown. The Council was organized by the appointment of Rev. Joseph Grafton, Moderator, and the Rev. John E. Weston, Clerk. Prayer by the Moderator. After hearing from the candidate a statement of his views of Christian doctrine, together with his motives for entering the Gospel Ministry, etc., the reading of the letter of invitation from the Church, and Mr. Maleom's letter of acceptance, all which proving satisfactory, and after assigning the several parts in the anticipated public exercises, it was Voted to proceed with his INSTALLATION. The order of services was as follows: Reading of Scripture, by Rev. Henry Jackson; Prayer, by Rev. Bela Jacobs; Sermon, by Rev. J. D. Knowles, from John xvii. 17-21; Prayer, by Rev. Joseph Grafton; Charge, by Rev. Daniel Sharp; Hand of Fellowship, by Rev. Rufus Babcock, Jr.; Address to the Church, by Rev. C. P. Grosvenor; Prayer, by Prof. Irah Chase. The audience was large, and the services very interesting and impressive.

MR. MALCOM's labors were blessed in a remarkable degree in drawing a large, intelligent congregation, composed in a great measure of those who had not been heretofore accustomed to attend on Baptist preaching. Pews were in great demand, and almost every available seat in the house was occupied. Large and constant additions were made to the Church from month to month throughout his entire pastorate. Mr. Malcom was an excellent Pastor; he was skilful in the discipline of the Church, and in the training of its members to work for the Master. He was much interested in ministerial education, and often exhorted the young men to consider the question whether they should not devote themselves to the work of the Ministry; and in his public ministrations he was accustomed to pray that they might be led to a right decision on the subject. The result was, that at one time there were no less than twelve young men, connected with the Church, in a course of study with reference to the Gospel Ministry.

Much of the success, the harmony and steadfastness of the Church as a body, during the many changes and trials it has since been called to pass through, is doubtless owing, under God, to the influence of this early training.

Among the early additions to the Church were a number of persons residing in that part of the City called South Boston, where meetings had been maintained by the "Evangelical Society," from the time when their efforts in relation to this Church terminated. "These persons were, on the 28th of August, 1828, empowered, in conjunction with a Committee of three brethren, to hold Church Meetings for business on their side of the bridge," and to be known as the "SOUTH BRANCH OF THE FEDERAL STREET BAPTIST CHURCH." Their place of meeting proving too small, the members of this Church and Congregation, assisted by a few other friends, erected a Meeting House, seventy-two feet by fifty-seven, which was dedicated July 22, 1830, in which were regularly maintained the stated Ordinances of the Gospel. The divine blessing evidently descended on this "Branch of the Church," not only in the peace and edification of the members, but in the conversion of souls, and growth of the Congregation. On the 1st of March, 1831, it was deemed expedient that these members be formed into a Church. The measure was adopted with perfect unanimity, and fifty-five Brethren and Sisters were affectionately dismissed to constitute the "SOUTH BAPTIST CHURCH of the City of Boston."

At a meeting of the Church, held on the 29th of January, 1828, "the propriety of introducing an ORGAN, for music, as an aid to this part of divine service, was discussed, — after which, it having been proposed by several individuals to purchase an Organ on shares, and allow the Society the use of it one year, without charge, it was RESOLVED, that this Church does, on their part, accept the proposal, and authorizes the Proprietors' Committee, when the Proprietors shall have concurred, to accept the said Organ, with the expectation that it be made subservient to the Choir; and reserving to themselves the privilege, if at the end of six months they become dissatisfied with its use, to cancel this vote."

An Organ, built by Thomas Appleton, was procured and placed in the house, the first in any Baptist house in Boston, and probably in New England, and it was retained until displaced for one of a larger size.

In the spring of 1831, our PASTOR's health became so much impaired that a voyage to Europe was deemed requisite. During his absence of eight months, the fruits of his faithful and affectionate ministrations exhibited themselves in a most interesting revival, which embraced a large portion of the most prominent young persons in the congregation.

Soon after the Pastor's return, with partially improved health, he, with his Church, was called upon to mourn the death of his two most efficient auxiliaries. MR. ENSIGN LINCOLN, whose active and constant exertions were identified with the origin and support of the Society, died December 2, 1832. The Society may justly be said to be indebted to his fostering care for its survival through the precarious period of infancy. He was a resource in every emergency. He participated affectionately and acceptably in the labors of the pulpit, and in the pastoral care. He was the main, because the constant, supporter of the Social Meeting. To him the Pastor might always resort for prompt and prudent counsel, and willing personal service. He made religion his glory; and perhaps no man has ever died more universally acknowledged a consistent professor and a devoted Christian.

MRS. LUCY M. MALCOM, wife of the Pastor, died January 15, 1833. This was a severe loss to both Pastor and Church. The energy and ability with which she managed every concern in which she engaged, were remarkable; and her precept and example were worthy of all imitation. Her labors in the Sabbath School, and her active interest in the Education of the Blind, and in the establishment of Infant Schools and Maternal Associations, will be long remembered.*

* The MATERNAL ASSOCIATION formed in connection with this Church was the first in this country, and was instituted by the efforts of Mrs. Malcom, who also first introduced INFANT SCHOOLS, and, in co-

Further trials awaited the Church. An affection of his vocal organs silenced the public instruction of our Pastor, and resulted, after a suspense of more than a year, in his asking a dismissal from his pastoral charge. This was sorrowfully, though cordially, granted in September, 1835, under the conviction that, in an appointment which was immediately tendered him to visit the missionary stations in the East, God had provided for him a most extensive field of usefulness, combined with the most promising course for the complete restoration of his health.

In October, 1835, a Unanimous Call was extended to the REV. GEORGE B. IDE, of Albany, to become the Pastor. This invitation was accepted, and he was INSTALLED, December 30, 1835. The services of the occasion were as follows: "Reading of Scripture and Prayer by Rev. John Naylor; Sermon by Rev. Baron Stow, from Luke x. 2, — "The laborers are few;" Prayer, by Rev. Francis Wayland; Charge, by Rev. Daniel Sharp; Right Hand of Fellowship, by Rev. Mr. Miller; Concluding Prayer, by Rev. William Collier. The services were peculiarly solemn and deeply interesting. Under his faithful labors the waning prosperity of the Society was stayed; the harmony of the Church remained unbroken, and the Congregation was considerably increased. The Gospel Trumpet, as sounded forth from his lips, gave no uncertain sound. His "preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom;" but a plain, direct and pungent presentation of truth, "warning every man and teaching every man" as a faithful "ambassador for Christ."

In the autumn of 1837, Mr. Ide received an invitation to become the Pastor of the "First Church in Philadelphia,"

under circumstances which, in connection with the ill health of his wife, induced him to accept it. He accordingly resigned his charge over this Church in December, but consented to continue his labors a few months longer. An interesting revival succeeded, and before his departure, in the April following, upwards of sixty were added to the Church by Baptism.

After invitations had been extended to two leading clergymen of the denomination, — Drs. Wayland and Sears, — and successively declined, in consequence of holding offices in public Institutions which they could not feel it their duty to resign, the REV. HANDEL G. NOTT with hesitation accepted a Call in March, 1839, and entered immediately upon his labors, and was INSTALLED May 23. The services of the occasion, which were of an unusually interesting character, were as follows: Reading of the Scriptures, by Rev. Thomas Driver; Prayer, by Dr. Lucius Bolles; Sermon, by Rev. Baron Stow; Prayer of Consecration, by Prof. Irah Chase; Charge, by Dr. Daniel Sharp; Hand of Fellowship, by Rev. R. H. Neale; Address to the Congregation, by Prof. Barnas Sears; Closing Prayer, by Rev. T. O. Lincoln. The house was filled at an early hour, and soon the aisles and gallery and porch presented a dense mass of eager listeners, and hundreds went away unable to press within the doors. After faithfully laboring one year, and himself judging that the indications to continue were not decisive, he, in the Christian spirit which characterized all his labors and intercourse, tendered his resignation, which, upon due deliberation, was accepted; leaving, as he did, a people to whom he had become much endeared, with their earnest prayers and warm benedictions following him.

For a series of years few accessions of families to the congregation had been made; while large drafts had been made on it by removals from the City, and by new Churches formed in the City about this time. In March, 1839, thirty-one members, many of them heads of families, were dismissed to unite with others in forming the Boylston, now "HARVARD STREET CHURCH;" and in the following April thirty-one were dismissed at the formation of the "First Baptist Free," now the "UNION TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH." worshipping in the "Tremont Temple." In the autumn of 1839, the building of the Church in Bowdoin Square was undertaken, to which many of the most influential and wealthy families remaining, contemplated giving their support; and in September, 1840, nineteen were dismissed to that interest.

Under such deductions in power and numbers, and the attractions of new interests around us, the temporal concerns of the Church and Society assumed a discouraging aspect. These, together with the natural consequences of a frequent change of Pastor, tended to induce despondency, which, however, yielded to united efforts for self-preservation.

In July, 1840, the Church and Society united in a most cordial and earnest invitation to the REV. WILLIAM HAGUE, of Providence, R. I. (formerly Pastor of the "First Baptist Church" in this City), to become their Pastor. He acceded to their wishes, and entered upon his labors in September following.

Early in the year 1842, a general attention to the subject of religion prevailed throughout the City, and unusual numbers were added to the Churches. But either because the cost had not been counted, or, what is more probable, because of the unfaithfulness of the Churches with which they united, too few became zealous Christians, and many turned back to the world; and a period of apathy ensued which remained almost unbroken for several years. In these vicissitudes this Church participated to some extent.

In consequence of the rapid extension of the City, the business part had reached the region where the Meeting House was situated, and all the dwellings in the vicinity were converted into warehouses; so that, as one after another of the Congregation disappeared by removal and other ordinary causes, none were near to supply their places. The difficulty, therefore, of sustaining the interest, under a still existing debt upon the House, became greater and greater; while at the same time, and from the same cause, the estate was much enhanced in value.

Under these circumstances, it was deemed advisable to dispose of the House and land, with a view of removing to some more eligible location. Accordingly, April 4, 1844, the Proprietors' Committee was authorized to make sale of the estate, with the understanding that the avails, after the payment of debts, should be employed in the erection of a place of worship elsewhere. It was soon disposed of, and public worship was held in the House for the last time on the 23d of February, 1845; after which it was soon demolished, and a granite block of stores, (numbering 7, 9, 11 and 13,) was erected, and now occupies the lot.

THE ROWE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

A site at the corner of Rowe (now Chauncy) and Bedford streets was at length secured, at $3.12½ per foot, and a liberal subscription was made, with a view of erecting a good, substantial, and appropriately designed edifice, as a place of worship. The CORNER-STONE was laid, accompanied by an Address by Dr. Hague, and other appropriate religious services, on the morning of April 27, 1846. The

THE SECOND MEETING HOUSE, 1847.

Church Book, containing a list of Members, Articles of Faith, Church Covenant, etc., names of the Building Committee, Architect, etc., a copy of the Baptist religious papers, the secular papers of the day, and various other articles, were deposited under the corner-stone. The House being completed, was DEDICATED April 7, 1847, and occupied on the next Sabbath. The style of architecture was of the pointed Gothic, built of dark-red sandstone, and finished interiorly with black walnut. It was ninety-six by sixty-six feet in extent, having a tower at the corner, surmounted by a spire rising to the height of one hundred and seventy-five feet above the sidewalk. It contained one hundred and fifty-eight pews. The Organ, made by Appleton, and pronounced of superior tone, contained thirty-two stops, and was located in the front angle corresponding to the tower.

By an Act of the Legislature, the name of the Society was subsequently changed to the "ROWE STREET BAPTIST SOCIETY," and the CHURCH adopted the corresponding name.

During the interval of twenty-two months, until the completion of the Lecture Room in December, 1846, the Society regularly worshipped for a time, once or twice each Sabbath, in "Amory Hall," and afterwards in the "Melodeon;" and during the whole period the commodious Lecture Room of St. Paul's (Episcopal) Church was most kindly and liberally granted for the business and devotional meetings of the Church.

A few months after entering the new house, the Pastor became convinced that the state of his health required an entire suspension of ministerial labors; and he consequently sent an unconditional resignation of his charge, much to the surprise and regret of his people. An unqualified vote was immediately passed by both Church and Society, that the Pastor be requested to retain his connection, and to take such time as he might judge necessary to reëstablish his health. To this he assented; and after an interval of six months, during which the pulpit was most acceptably supplied, his people had the satisfaction of welcoming him back to resume his labors.

In the summer of 1848, however, Dr. Hague again became satisfied that the state of his health would not justify his continuance as Pastor of the Church, and accordingly he a second time resigned, leaving no hope that his services could be retained. His resignation was accepted, and he closed his labors the last Sabbath in July, 1848. The prospects of the Church and Society were darkened by this event, and many were oppressed by a feeling of discouragement. Owing to a variety of unforeseen circumstances, a debt of considerable amount had been incurred in the erection of the new place of Worship, and fears were entertained by some that it could not be liquidated without a sale of the property. But, after mature deliberation and prayer, it was resolved to make a vigorous effort to sustain an enterprise which had enjoyed so much of the Divine favor.

The REV. BARON STOW, who had been for more than fifteen years Pastor of the "BALDWIN PLACE CHURCH" in this City, had been compelled by the severity of his labors, and the consequent failure of his health, to retire from his charge. In the autumn of 1848, the attention of the Church was directed to him, his health having much improved, and accordingly he was invited by the Church and Society to become their Pastor. With much solicitude as to the result, he accepted the invitation, and commenced his work November 1, 1848. His first sermon, preached on Sabbath morning, November 5th, was from the text, "The fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ," Rom. xv.

29. His labors were attended by the divine blessing, and both the Church and Society had occasion for devout gratitude to God for a large measure of prosperity.

At a meeting of the Church, April 29, 1851, it was Resolved, "That, as all our former Pastors and many Clergymen, and others who have formerly been members of this Church, may be expected in this City during the session of the Missionary Convention, a Social Reunion of those who are or have been members of this Church, on some evening of the 'Convention week,' would be most grateful and desirable." In accordance with the above vote, a circular, signed by A. A. Gould, S. Eveleth and W. D. Ticknor, inviting present and past members to attend such a meeting, on Wednesday evening, May 14, 1851, was sent out.

The circular says: "Such an opportunity can never be expected to recur again, when all who have been Pastors of the Church, to one or the other of whose teachings most of us ascribe our conversion, and whose names are therefore dearer to us than any other Pastor's name is, or can be, — MALCOM, IDE, NOTT, HAGUE, STOW, — we may severally meet on earth, at one and the same time. And it cannot but be grateful once more to unite as a family, as it were, under the paternal roof, to exchange social and Christian greetings; and thus associated to recall the 'rapture' when 'first our tongue broke out in unknown strains,' and take a retrospect of the way in which 'thus far the Lord has led us on.'"

The friends, with the present and all the past Pastors, assembled in large numbers at the Church, at six o'clock p. m., when tea was served; after which, Addresses were made by each of the Pastors, and the remainder of time was spent in social greetings, singing, etc. Dr. Malcom remarked in his address that "there were three remarkable things about the meeting: the first was, that all the Pastors of a Church as old as this should be living, and still in the field at work; second, that they should all be ready to accept an invitation to visit the Church, of which they had once been Pastor; and, third, the most remarkable of all, was, that the Church should be willing to invite them." The meeting was one of rare interest, and will never be forgotten by those present.

June 10, 1853, it is recorded, "The House is well filled with a serious and united Congregation. The Sabbath School numbers more than four hundred pupils. Two hundred and seventy-five members have been added to the Church. The debt of the Society, amounting to about sixteen thousand dollars, has been paid. May Pastor and People not fail to realize their indebtedness to God for past mercies, and their dependence upon his grace for all future favors. May they be distinguished by great humility, and by active devotion to their Master's service."

Such was our history to the month of June, 1853. From that date prosperity attended the Church for some years. In 1858, the largest number were added by Baptism and by Letter that had been received in any one year for six years, although the harvest was not so large as many other Churches reaped, as the result of the revival which swept over the land in the years 1857 and 1858.

The Sabbath School, which has always been warmly cherished by the Church, held a social gathering, of the present and past members, in the Church, on the twenty-second of October, 1860. A brief extract from a circular sent out, signed by the Pastor, and the Superintendent and Secretary of the School, will explain the object of the meeting:—

"The undersigned, a Committee appointed for the purpose, respectfully and affectionately invite you to attend a general REUNION of the past and present members of the ROWE STREET — formèrly the FEDERAL STREET — SABBATH SCHOOL, on Monday, the 22d of October next. The School will then have a history of a third of a century to review; and it is earnestly desired that all now living, whose connection with the School, as officers, teachers, or pupils, has made a part of that history, should contribute to render the review as complete as possible. It is known that many have been spiritually benefited by the evangelical instruction here received, and the hope is cherished that, by collecting the facts from the lips or pens of a large number, the grace of God may be honored, and fresh confidence awakened in the utility of the Sabbath School enterprise."

On Sunday, the day previous to the meeting, the Pastor preached a Sermon preparatory to the meeting to occur on the following day. At 3 o'clock, on Monday, the friends gathered in large numbers, and remained through the afternoon and evening, tea being provided in the Lecture Room at 7 o'clock. Addresses were made, extracts from letters received from a distance, and some from persons near at hand, unable to be present, were read. Hymns were sung, and the warm grasping of hands and friendly greetings were freely indulged in. The occasion was one of very great interest and profit to all.

The additions to the Church for the next nine years were quite small, and all the while our numbers were diminishing and the Church made weaker by removals out of or into distant parts of the City, and by death; to which must be added the constant diminishing of the population near us by the unlooked-for and rapid encroachment of places of business: all these were sources of great anxiety to both Pastor and people. The subject also of removing from Rowe Street was constantly before the minds of the people, convinced as they were that such a step was near at hand; and at one time a proposition from the Shawmut Avenue Church, to unite the two Churches, was under consideration, and a union nearly concluded, as the best means, it was thought, of continuing our own, and securing the prosperity of the denomination in our City; but this failed of accomplishment, to the manifest advantage of both Churches and the cause at large.

Death had been year by year taking from us aged and eminent members, whose faithful labors will long be remembered, and their memories cherished; but the year 1867 was an eventful one with us in the death, within a few months of each other, of three aged sisters, the fragrance of whose memories will long remain with us: Mrs. Catharine M. Mears, one of the early members, Mrs. Hetty G. Lincoln, wife of Deacon Heman Lincoln, and Mrs. Harriet P. Henschman.

In the month of May, Dr. Stow, in a letter read to the Congregation, resigned his office as Pastor in the following terms: "With a solemn sense of my responsibility to God, I to-day surrender into your hands the trust which you confided to me in the autumn of 1848." The resignation was accepted, but by request of the Church he continued to supply the pulpit for some months. Thus a vacancy had been made which all felt it would be difficult to fill. This, too, added much to the already heavy burden resting upon the comparatively small number of brethren who remained.

Our meetings were continued, and we were constantly looking and praying that one might be sent to us who would make up our loss. The minds of some had been directed to the Rev. Adoniram Judson Gordon, of Jamaica Plain, and in the month of December the Church gave him a hearty and unanimous call to become its Pastor, but which, after serious deliberation, he declined.

Authority having been given by the Proprietors to their "Standing Committee" to dispose of our House of Worship, a sale was effected in the month of October, possession to be given in the month of July following; but by agreement, afterwards made, it was delivered up on the first of June.

Our last service was held there on the thirty-first day of May, 1868, the last Sabbath of the month. Many were present who had formerly worshipped with us, which served to add to the interest of the occasion. Sermons were preached by Drs. Hague and Stow, and the Lord's Supper was observed. With these and other services, solemn and appropriate, our last day was spent in the old House.

Very cordial invitations had been extended to the Church by four of our sister Churches to occupy their houses for one half of each Sabbath, and their Vestries for meetings on week evenings. As our people would be better accommodated there, the invitation of the "Baldwin Place," now "Warren Avenue Church," was accepted, and our first service was held in their Church on the first Sabbath afternoon of June, and we continued there till the third Sabbath in April, 1869. To the Pastor and people our Church acknowledges its indebtedness for the uniform courtesy received, for endeavors to meet our wants, and to make our stay pleasant. During this time there were but few added by Letter or Baptism. There was one baptismal occasion, Dr. Eddy kindly officiating.

The Sabbath School was suspended, and such of our Teachers and Scholars as chose to attend, were cordially welcomed to the Warren Avenue Sabbath School.

The Church held together well, maintaining a spirit of earnest prayer,—the members generally feeling that a heavy responsibility rested upon them.

After the sale of the House, immediate steps were taken to secure a new location.

THE CLARENDON STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

After a thorough search and careful consideration, it was decided with great unanimity that the lot on the corner of Clarendon and Montgomery Streets would be best adapted to meet the wishes, and best accommodate the people; accordingly that lot was secured, and work commenced on the foundations early in the spring of 1868, under the direction of an able and self-sacrificing Committee of the Society. The work progressed successfully, and on Saturday P. M., Oct. 31, 1868, the CORNER-STONE was laid with appropriate Religious Services, conducted by Rev. Dr. Stow, and in which Drs. Neale, Hague and Eddy participated. By an Act of the Legislature of 1869, the name of our Society was changed to the "CLARENDON STREET BAPTIST SOCIETY," and by a vote of the CHURCH, the corresponding name was adopted.

The winter of '68 and '69 was quite favorable to the work on the House, and the Lecture Room was ready for occupancy in April; and the Church met in it for the first time, Sunday, April 25. Dr. Stow and Dr. Hague preached on the occasion, and the Communion Service was observed. Here our Congregation at times was large, and the attendance on our evening meetings increased.

Our Sabbath School was reorganized under the care of Bro. Eben Shute, and has since been going on prosperously.

In August of this year the funeral services of DEACON HEMAN LINCOLN were held here in the presence of a large and deeply interested congregation. Deacon Lincoln lived to the age of ninety years and seven months, and for a active member of the "Baldwin Place" and "Rowe Street" Churches. He was chosen Deacon in 1827, and served the Church faithfully and well, always being looked up to as a model man and Christian. He went to his rest full of years and honors.

RICHARD FLETCHER, who had occupied a seat on the Bench of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, died this year, at an advanced age, having been a member of the Church for nearly forty years, leaving behind him an enviable reputation as an able Lawyer and upright Judge and a faithful Christian.

After much prayer for divine guidance, and a seeking for the best gifts in one to serve as Pastor, the minds of the people seemed still to cling to, and the Church in the month of July renewed the "Call" to MR. GORDON, which to the satisfaction and rejoicing of all he accepted, — his term of service commencing November 1, 1869. Although performing Pastoral service, he did not commence preaching for us till after the Dedication of the House. The HOUSE WAS DEDICATED on Thursday evening, December ninth; the Sermon was preached by the Pastor; many ministers were present, and there was a large and deeply interested Congregation.

The House, as completed, stands on a lot measuring one hundred by one hundred and twenty-five feet. It is substantially built of brick, with light free-stone trimmings in Gothic style; it has a tower and spire rising to the height of some two hundred feet; with a Bell and Clock, the former being the munificent gift of one of the members of the Church. The interior is finished in black walnut, with light and pleasing frescoing. There are two hundred pews, furnishing seats for nearly twelve hundred people. The arrangements for religious meetings and social gatherings in the basement are ample and complete. As cherished relics of our former place of worship, the Organ, noted for its sweetness of tone, somewhat enlarged, — and the Baptistry, with an improved mode of ingress and egress, — were preserved for use in the present house. The whole cost of the Land and House completely furnished, was one hundred and seventy-three thousand dollars, of which there was realized from the sale of the old House $86,736.25, and from subscriptions, which were liberal, $61,839.60; leaving a temporary mortgage on the land of $25,000.

Services of RECOGNITION of Mr. GORDON as Pastor took place in the Church Sabbath evening, December 26th, in accordance with the following programme: — Reading of the Scriptures, Rev. G. W. Gardner; Sermon, Rev. G. B. Ide, a former Pastor; Prayer of Recognition, Rev. S. R. Mason; Hand of Fellowship, Rev. R. H. Neale; Charge, Rev. J. D. Fulton; Address to the Church, Rev. S. W. Foljambe; Benediction, by the Pastor.

In the Dedication Services it was expected that Dr. Stow would participate, and it was a great disappointment when it was known at the last moment that what was supposed to be a slight cold would prevent his presence. Contrary to the expectation of his family and friends, his sickness increased, until it took the form of an affection of the brain, from which he never rallied, and on Monday morning, Dec. 27, the morning after his successor had been recognized as Pastor of the Church, he went to his rest. The funeral services took place in the Church, Wednesday, Dec. 29, in the presence of an overflowing congregation, in which were a very large number of Ministers and friends, testifying, more than any words, to the strong hold he had taken upon the minds and affections of the people of the City where he had faithfully labored in the gospel ministry for nearly forty years. He left behind him an enviable reputation as a Pastor, as a pulpit orator, a successful preacher of the gospel, a sympathizing friend and Christian gentleman. His remains were followed by a large retinue of friends to his final resting-place in Mount Auburn.

The Church has placed upon its Records a series of resolutions expressive of its appreciation of his character and services.

The sale of pews took place on Tuesday evening Dec. 28, and was very successful; all but a few, about four, of the highest priced pews being taken. The Congregations on the Sabbath have been large, and the additions of permanent members of the Congregation have been larger than could have been anticipated. The Spirit of God has attended the preaching, and interesting cases of conversion have occurred, which have been cause of much joy and thanksgiving. The first Baptism took place the last Sabbath of January, 1870, when four followed their Lord in that significant ordinance, after a most interesting Sermon on the subject by the Pastor.

The Pastor, feeling deeply interested in Congregational Singing, introduced the subject at an early day, and a greater or less interest was aroused in the members of the Church and Congregation. The Psalmist, with Music, was partially introduced into the service of the Sabbath, and its use was continued till the "Service of Song," which had been in course of preparation by the Rev. S. L. Caldwell, D.D., and our Pastor jointly, was ready, when that work was introduced with great unanimity of feeling in the month of September, 1871, and up to this time has increased in favor with the people.

The zeal and faithfulness of the Pastor, the harmony existing in the Church and Society, and the presence of the Spirit, inspire confidence that the Church is entering once more upon a season of prosperity.

It having pleased the Lord to put it into the hearts of a number of persons to erect a new House for His Worship, which has been accomplished under circumstances peculiarly harmonious and pleasing, and with evident tokens of the propitious smiles of the Great Head of the Church, we feel it an incumbent duty, with a view, as we trust, to the glory of the rich grace of the Redeemer, which we hope we have experienced, and to the extension of His Kingdom among men, and with the friendly advice and consent of the Churches to which we belong, to Associate and Covenant together in the bonds of Christian fellowship, under the name of the FEDERAL STREET BAPTIST CHURCH OF CHRIST in Boston (now, CLARENDON STREET BAPTIST CHURCH). And knowing, that, as with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, so with the mouth confession is made unto salvation, we deem it suitable to make the following declaration of our views of divine truth : —

We believe that the HOLY BIBLE was written by men divinely inspired, and is a perfect rule of faith and practice.

38 DECLARATION OF FAITH AND PRACTICE.

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Tim. iii. 16, 17. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pet. i. 21.

See also 1 Pet. i. 10, 11. 2 Sam. xxiii. 2. Acts i. 16, and iii. 21, and xxviii. 25. Heb. iii. 7, ix. 19, x. 15.

We believe that the Bible teaches, among others, the following all-important truths:—

1. The existence of one only living and true God, infinite in every natural and moral perfection; and that he has made himself known to his people under the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; the same in essence, and equal in every divine perfection.

The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord. Mark xii. 29, 32. For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Tim. ii. 5. Remember the former things of old; for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me. Isa. xlv. 9. For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. Isa. ix. 6. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. John i. 1. All men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father which hath sent him. John v. 23. I and my Father are one. John x. 30. Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt. xxviii. 19. For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. 1 John v. 7.

See also Ex. xx. 1-3. Ps. xcv. 3. 1 Cor. viii. 4. 2 Cor. xiii. 14. 1 John i. 3.

2. That man was created holy; but, by violating the law of his Maker, he fell from that state, and from all communion with God; and as, by divine appointment, Adam was the representative of all his posterity, we in him became dead in sins. So that, by nature, we are indisposed to all good, and inclined to all evil, and are children of wrath, and subjects of death, and of all other miseries, temporal and eternal.

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. Gen. i. 26, 27. God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. Eccl. vii. 29. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. Gen. iii. 6, 7. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores; they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. Isa. i. 5, 6. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. Rom. iii. 12, 23. And, as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind; being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, backbiters, haters of God, despiteful; proud, boast-ers, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful; who, knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. Rom. i. 28-32. For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 23. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. These are the things which defile a man. Matt. xv. 18-20.

See also Gen. vi. 5, and viii. 21. Ps. xiv. 1-3. Rom. xi. 32. Gal. iii. 22. James i. 15. Rev. xxi. 8.

3. That the only way of salvation from this state of guilt and condemnation is through the righteousness and atonement of Jesus Christ; who, as the good Shepherd, laid down his life for his sheep; and that those only, who receive the gift of repentance and faith in him, will be finally saved by his atonement.

40 DECLARATION OF FAITH AND PRACTICE.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows. He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we, like sheep, have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. For the transgression of my people was he stricken. By his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. He hath poured out his soul unto death; and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Isa. liii. 4-12. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself. Dan ix. 24, 26. I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy; I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good Shepherd; the good Shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. John x. 9-11, 15. Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. Acts iv. 11, 12. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. But God commendeth his love towards us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign, through righteousness, unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. v. 6-21. For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 23. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets. Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe. Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Rom. iii. 21-26. He that believeth on him is not condemned; but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. John iii. 18, 36. Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke xiii. 3.

See also Acts v. 31. John v. 24, and vi. 40, and xx. 31. 1 Pet. i. 8, 9.

4. That all who ever have been, or will be brought to repentance and faith in the gospel, were chosen in Christ to salvation before the foundation of the world; and that, in consequence of the eternal love of God to them, through the atonement, the Holy Ghost is sent to effect the work of regeneration in their hearts, without which regenerating influence, none would ever repent or believe.

The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee. Jer. xxxi. 3. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain. John xv. 16. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world; thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. John xvii. 6. According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world that we should be holy, and without blame before him in love; having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Eph. i. 4, 5, 11. Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience. 1 Pet. i. 2. For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to election, might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, it was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. Rom. ix. 11, 12, 23. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son. Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called; and whom he called, them he also justified, and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Rom. viii. 29, 30. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. John xiv. 16-18, 26. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me. John xv. 26. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. John iii. 3. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. iv. 6. And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience; among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ (by grace ye are saved); and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Eph. ii. 1-6. Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus, before the world began. 2 Tim. i. 9. Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Titus iii. 5.

5. That nothing can separate true believers from the love of God; but they will be kept by his power, through faith unto salvation.

Yea, he loved the people; all his saints are in thy hand; and they sat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words. Deut. xxxiii. 3. Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm; for love is strong as death. Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it. Cant. viii. 6, 7. All that the Father giveth me shall come to me. John vi. 37. I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and none is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. John x. 28-30. Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phil. i. 6.

6. That the only proper subjects of the ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper are professed believers; and that Baptism is properly administered only by immersion; and is, by Scripture examples, a prerequisite to communion at the Lord's table.

Then went out to him all Judea, &c., and were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins. Bring forth, therefore, fruits meet for repentance; and think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our Father. I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance; but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear; he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire. Matt. iii. 5-12. Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt. xxviii. 19. Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized; and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Acts ii. 38, 41. But when they believed Philip, preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Acts viii. 12. And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the chariot to stand still; and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing. Acts viii. 36-39. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water. Matt. iii. 16. And John also was baptizing in Enon, near to Salim, because there was much water there; and they came and were baptized. John iii. 23. Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. Col. ii. 12. The like figure whereunto, even baptism, doth also now save us, not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God. 1 Pet. iii. 21.

Church Covenant.

As we trust we have been brought by divine grace to embrace the Lord Jesus Christ, and by the influence of his Spirit to give ourselves up to him, so we do now solemnly covenant with each other, that, God enabling us, we will walk together in brotherly love; that we will exercise a Christian care and watchfulness over each other, and faithfully warn, rebuke, and admonish one another, as the case shall require; that we will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, nor omit the great duty of prayer, both for ourselves and for others; that we will participate in each other's joys, and endeavor, with tenderness and sympathy, to bear each other's burdens and sorrows; that we will earnestly endeavor to bring up such as may be under our care in the nurture and admonition of the Lord; that we will seek divine aid to enable us to walk circumspectly and watchfully in the world, denying ungodliness and every worldly lust; that we will strive together for the support of a faithful evangelical ministry among us; that we will endeavor, by example and effort, to win souls to Christ; and through life, amidst evil report and good report, seek to live to the glory of Him who hath called us out of darkness into his marvellous light.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

A Standing Committee of thirteen persons, of which the Pastor and Deacons are members ex officio, to be elected at the meeting in December; whose duty it shall be to examine all candidates for membership, to make preliminary inquiries in cases of discipline, and, generally, to attend to such other business as relates to the welfare of the Church, especially such as may be introduced by the Pastor.

ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP.

The Church adopt, as a practice, that all candidates for Baptism, after they have been approved by the Standing Committee, shall be proposed at a monthly meeting, and stand propounded one month. A special committee is appointed by the Church on each case, whose examinations as to personal piety and moral character are expected to be particular and thorough, and, if satisfied, they shall so report to the Church before the vote shall be taken on reception. If not satisfied, they shall have authority to postpone the appearance of the individual before the Church.

Letters of recommendation and dismissal from other Churches are to be presented to the Pastor or Deacons, and by them laid before the Standing Committee, who shall inquire, in each case, into the religious history, occupation, residence, habits, etc., of the applicant; and if found to be satisfactory, the Letter to be presented to the Church with a Report; and when practicable, the individuals shall be requested then, or at the first convenient opportunity, to relate to the Church their religious experience.

DUTY OF MEMBERS WHO REMOVE.

1. It shall be the duty of every member who may remove from Boston to any place where there is a regular Baptist Church, expecting to return within a year, to take and present to that Church a letter of recommendation for occasional communion. It shall, moreover, be the duty of such member to give information of his or her residence and spiritual condition to this Church on or before the first day of August, in every year.

2. In case a member shall remove from the city to be absent for several years, it shall be the duty of such member to ask a letter of dismissal to some regular Baptist Church in his or her neighborhood; and if there be none within a convenient distance, he or she shall give yearly notice to this Church, as is required in the preceding rule.

STATED MEETINGS AND ORDINANCES.

THE STANDING COMMITTEE meet to examine candidates, and attend to other business, on the Monday evening preceding the last Sabbath of every month.

THE MONTHLY CHURCH MEETING is on the Tuesday evening preceding the last Sabbath in every month.

THE ORDINANCE OF BAPTISM, when there are candidates, is administered on the last Sabbath of the month, in connection with the morning service.

THE LORD'S SUPPER is administered on the first Sabbath in every month, in connection with the afternoon service.

THE MONTHLY CONCERT OF PRAYER FOR MISSIONS is on the first Sabbath evening in every month.

THE WEEKLY PRAYER AND CONFERENCE MEETING is on Friday evening.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL CONCERT is held on the fourth Sabbath evening in every month.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL MEETS at a quarter before two o'clock, P.M.

BENEVOLENT CONTRIBUTIONS.

In order to systematize our mode of contributing to the leading objects of benevolence, the Church has adopted the scriptural idea, "that every one lay by him in store, on the first day of the week, as God has prospered him." Cards with the several objects and the per ct. as apportioned by vote of the Church, to each, printed thereon, are distributed to the members of the Church and Society, at the commencement of the year, on which every one is expected to write his or her name and the amount they propose to give, per week, during the year. These cards are placed in the hands of a committee to superintend the collections, etc.

On the last Sabbath of each month the boxes are passed to receive the contributions of that month, and it is expected that every one, old and young, will give something. The objects embraced in the plan are as follows, viz. : —

FOREIGN MISSIONS, HOME MISSIONS, SABBATH SCHOOLS, MINISTERIAL EDUCATION, TRACT CAUSE, BOSTON BAPTIST BETHEL SOCIETY, AND NEEDY CHURCHES.

Other Collections are regularly taken as follows : —

On the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the Boston Baptist South Association, for the Massachusetts Baptist Charitable Society, in aid of widows of deceased Baptist ministers.

On the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving, for the poor of the Parish.

Every month, after the Lord's Supper, for the poor of the Church and for necessary Church purposes.

All Collections, for whatever objects, are required to be paid in full into the Treasury of the Church, and paid out (excepting collections for the poor) per vote of the Church, and to be reported by the Treasurer in his Annual Account, which shall be audited by a Committee appointed for the purpose.

All Collections made for the poor are dispensed by the Deacons, and accounted for in gross by the Treasurer.

All Committees appointed by the Church to superintend collections and subscriptions are required to report as soon as convenient to the Church, when the sums reported as raised shall be appropriated.

HISTORICAL CATALOGUE
Present and Past Members.

Those persons against whose names there is no reference to another church were received by baptism. The mark (§) against any name denotes that the individual has been dismissed to join some other Baptist church ; a star (*) marks such as are deceased ; an obelisk (†) is attached to the names of those from whom the fellowship of the church has been withdrawn ; and (‡) to those who have seceded to some other evangelical denomination ; and (||) against those, who, from long absence, have become unknown. The names of licentiates are in Italics, and of ordained ministers in capitals.

SPECIAL NOTE.

IN a large city, a Church like this — whose members are scattered in all directions among the moving mass of population, and with whom various changes are constantly occurring — is in special danger of losing sight of many of its members without the earnest co-operation and faithful watch-care of the entire membership. It is not possible for the Pastor, or the other officers of the church, or for any limited number of persons, to keep trace of the members, so as to fulfil in any satisfactory manner their mutual covenant obligations. Yet, inasmuch as every individual member is, in a certain sense, the centre of a circle, and coming in frequent contact with those who to others are comparatively unknown, each, by a little care, and by assuming a portion of the responsibility resting alike on each individual member, may do very much towards accomplishing so desirable an end.

With this, then, in view, it is recommended and urged that each one procure, and keep at hand, a “CHURCH MANUAL,” containing a list of members, and that they be particular to note in the margin, or on interleaved pages of the same, the full name and residence of each new member received (and how received), also the deaths, dismissions and exelusions; the change of name of females by marriage, and especially the changes of residence.

By the observance of these few and simple suggestions (costing but little if attended to at the time), most important facts will be preserved, not only for personal satisfaction and profit, but, thus stored, they can, whenever called for, be produced, and furnish most valuable information for the general good of the Church.
